PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

- Laptop or phone missing ports for USB, internet, or external display? This 8-in-1 adapter expands everything in one device.
- Connect monitor via HDMI, plug in USB devices, and use wired internet through one USB-C port.
- Supports Power Delivery charging up to 87W so you can charge while using other ports.
- Perfect for modern laptops with limited ports like MacBook and ultrabooks.
- Compact and portable design makes it ideal for office, travel, or presentations.
- Performance depends on device compatibility with USB-C (must support video output).

□ Best For

- Laptop users needing multiple ports expansion
- Office work, presentations, and productivity setups
