PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

• Need a high-performance office printer that can handle heavy daily work efficiently? The Epson EcoTank L6490 is built for serious business productivity.

- All-in-One functionality (Print, Scan, Copy, Fax) makes it a complete solution for offices, companies, and high-volume users.
- Automatic Document Feeder (ADF) allows fast scanning and copying of multiple pages — saving time in busy environments.
- Automatic Duplex (double-sided printing) reduces paper usage and increases efficiency for professional documents.
- Built-in WiFi and network connectivity allow multiple users to print easily from phones, laptops, and office systems.
- EcoTank system delivers ultra-low printing cost — ideal for businesses printing large volumes regularly.
- High-quality output ensures professional documents, reports, invoices, and presentations.
- Designed for reliability and continuous daily use in demanding office environments.
- ⚠ Not for casual home use — this is built for business, office workflow, and high-volume printing.
- 📦 Advantage: Duplex + ADF + WiFi + low ink cost = full office printing system that saves both time and money.
