PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

- Need a compact and lightweight laptop for everyday work, study, and business tasks?
- The HP EliteBook Folio G1 combines an Intel Core m5 processor, 8GB RAM, and a 256GB SSD for smooth everyday productivity.
- Its 12.5-inch display and slim business-focused design make it easy to carry between home, office, and university.
- The 256GB SSD provides faster startup and application loading compared with traditional hard drives.
- 8GB RAM is suitable for everyday multitasking such as browsing, Microsoft Office, online learning, and business applications.
- Refurbished condition makes it an affordable option for users who need a portable business laptop.
- Best suited for everyday productivity rather than demanding gaming, heavy video editing, or intensive professional workloads.

📁 Best For

- University students
- Office and business work
- Browsing and online learning
- Microsoft Office applications
- Remote work and everyday productivity
