PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

- Need an affordable laptop for basic daily tasks without spending too much? The HP Stream 14 is a smart budget option for students, home users, and light office work.
- Powered by Intel Celeron processor, it is suitable for simple tasks such as typing documents, browsing the internet, online learning, email, and video streaming.
- 4GB RAM supports basic multitasking for light usage like opening documents, browsing, and using simple office applications.
- 32GB internal storage is best for essential apps and light files — for more space, we recommend using cloud storage, flash drive, or external storage.
- 14-inch display gives a comfortable viewing size for school work, online classes, browsing, and watching videos.
- Slim and lightweight design makes it easy to carry to school, home, or travel.
- Built-in WiFi and webcam make it useful for online classes, Zoom meetings, and communication.
- Long battery performance makes it convenient for daily light use without charging all the time.
- ⚠ This is not for heavy software, gaming, programming, graphics design, or serious multitasking — it is built for basic computing only.
- ☑ Advantage: Very affordable + lightweight + simple to use = perfect entry-level laptop for basic daily work.
