PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

- Is your laptop's built-in speaker too quiet or lacking clear sound for music, movies, and online meetings?
 - The Kisonli K100 USB Laptop Speakers deliver clear stereo audio in a compact design, making them ideal for everyday entertainment and work.
 - Simply connect via USB for power and the 3.5mm audio jack for sound—no software installation required.
 - Compact size saves desk space while providing better sound than most built-in laptop speakers.
 - Suitable for laptops, desktop computers, and other devices with a 3.5mm audio output.
 - Best suited for everyday listening, online classes, meetings, and multimedia—not intended for large rooms or high-volume professional audio.
- Best For
- Laptop users
 - Desktop computer users
 - Online classes and meetings
 - Music and movie playback
 - Home and office use
